

Music help in understanding and in establishing relationships with people in the new country. Music is a universal language. Videoclip Despacito has over 6,4 billion views on youtube. So in some ways, people from different countries are no different, all are watching clips and listening to music.

Do Music techniques help overcome language barriers? If so, how?

Do Music techniques help overcome cultural barriers? If so, how?